Clarification on a question previously submitted:

Question No. 8 from Addendum 2 asks:

Our assumption is that the state's 3.6% refuse tax, as well as the King County hazardous waste fee, would continue to be itemized separately on customer bills, and not be included in the unit price, as is the current practice in King County. Is this assumption correct?

Yes. The state's 3.6% refuse tax, as well as the King County Hazardous waste fee, will continue to be itemized separately on customer bills, and not included in the unit price as is the current practice in King County.
